....Respondent(s)

CORUM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M. AGGARWAL

Present: Mr. Aman Kashyap, Advocate.

This is petition against order dated 22.3.2006 passed by Civil Judge(Jr.Divn.), Chandigarh whereby an application of the plaintiffs, now respondents under Order 6 Rule 17 CPC was allowed and permission for amendment in the plaint was granted.

On behalf of the petitioner, it is argued that by way of amendment, the entire nature of the suit was changed and some admissions already made by the plaintiffs/respondents should not have been withdrawn.

Case was at initial stages. Even the issues had not been framed when the amendment was allowed.

Under these circumstances, I do not find any merit in the present petition. Same is dismissed with the observation that the pleas already taken and withdrawn may be taken into consideration by the trial Court.
